1. INTRODUCTION

Generally, issues can be addressed by talking to the relevant staff. Open communication and regular engagement between the school, parents/carers and other stakeholders is vital to nurturing positive relationships within the whole school community.

Our mission statement, Learning, Caring and Sharing Together, our vision and our core values are a summary of what we do and why we do it. We are a caring community with a sound value base. We value and respect all members of our school community.

OUR CORE VALUES

We are kind.

We have respect

We have Faith.

We have courage.

We achieve.

Our School Vision

To respect, value and appreciate all members of our school community; praying together and working together to be the best we can be.

We recognise that our pupils and staff are unique and endeavour to meet their needs, nurturing gifts and talents, through quality provision with high expectations.

We encourage our children to achieve excellence across the curriculum, enabling them to fulfil their potential.

We encourage all members of our school community to use their skills to contribute and flourish in an ever- changing digital age.

We have strong lines of communication with parents and carers. We have an open-door policy regarding concerns or queries. We value feedback and input from all members of our school community. There are a variety of means of direct communication with the class teachers, the principal and parents via TEAMS, Seesaw, by phone and email. Parents are also welcome to make an appointment to speak to the class teachers directly if they have a query or concern.

We address issues in a calm and timely fashion and take complaints seriously. We make every effort to resolve matters as quickly as possible. We have the best interests of all our pupils and their families at the heart of all we do. We encourage anyone with a worry to speak to us as soon as possible. Our experience has been, if issues are dealt with at an early stage, then they can be resolved leaving no unnecessary dissatisfaction.

Our school Complaints Procedure sets out how any expression of dissatisfaction relating to the school will be managed. By taking complaints seriously at the earliest possible stage, it is hoped that they can be resolved quickly and effectively.

This procedure should not be used for complaints with separate established procedures, however if your complaint relates to the school's failure to correctly administer any of these procedures, then you may complain by means of this procedure.

Some examples of statutory procedures and appeal mechanisms, which are not part of the school's complaints procedure, are listed below. The list is not exhaustive. The principal/ chair of governors will advise on the appropriate procedure to use when a complaint is raised.

Exceptions
• Admissions / Expulsions / Exclusion of children from school • Statutory assessments of Special Educational Needs (SEN) • School Development Proposals • Child Protection / Safeguarding
